

Want to get free books, magazines, music, and movies to enjoy while you're staying home?

Simi Valley Public Library is open, virtually, at simivalleylibrary.org where you'll find engaging material for all members of the family!

Don't have a card? Email us at AskUs@simivalleylibrary.org to register for an Internet Use Only card which will give you access to all digital materials.*

FAQs about the Library's closure and account information can be found here.

E-books and E-audiobooks Download the CloudLibrary app or click here, choose Simi Valley Library, enter your library card, and begin browsing.

Streaming Movies, TV shows, Music and Audiobooks Download the Hoopla app or click here, when it asks for a library choose Simi Valley Library, enter your library card, and enjoy. Hoopla is brought to you by the Simi Valley Friends of the Library. Consider becoming a member!

Digital magazines Download the app or click the rotating carousel of magazines on our website, and start flipping through more than 20 magazines today.

Test Prep and Tutorials Click here to check out the test prep and tutorial options for grades 5-12, College, and Career.

*Bring in proof of address and ID after the Library has reopened, and we will switch your account to full access.