LIBRARY FAQs

What about materials I currently have checked out?

All items currently checked out will have their due dates extended until the Library re-opens. Our library is fine free, so no overdue fines will accrue during the Library's closure.

Can I return my books?

The Library's book return is closed until further notice. Please keep all of your materials until the Library reopens. All due dates will be extended until the Library re-opens. Our library is fine free, so no overdue fines will be charged to your account. Thank you for your patience during this time.

What about items I have on hold?

Hold periods will also be extended until the library reopens. You will not lose your place in the holds queue.

What if my account is blocked or expired?

Please contact the Library at AskUs@simivalleylibrary.org so that staff can help you with any account issues.

How can I read books if the Library is closed?

The Library has eBooks, digital audiobooks, music, movies, and more available through our digital resources 24/7.

How can I apply for a library card?

Please complete the online library card application. Library staff will respond with your account details. Please be sure to include both a phone number and an email address in your application to ensure staff is able to reach you.

If you have any further questions, please leave a message at email us at AskUs@simivalleylibrary.org. Staff will be responding to inquiries.
